WELCOME TO THE MARCH 2010 ISSUE

Firstly, the annual daffodil alert: watch out for all those bulbs planted in past years by Joe Burbidge and friends as they come into flower.

There's a good mix of activities coming up. If you want a good night out while supporting a charity, you've got two good opportunities. There's an acoustic music night at the Community Centre on 13th March, in aid of 'Hope and Homes for Children', and a Disco in aid of breast cancer research and Dorothy House on 20th, also at the Community Centre.

If history is more your bag, you'll enjoy the National Trust lecture about Avebury on 27th, again in the Community Centre.

There are two Lent soup lunches, one in the Pavilion in Seend on 13th March, and another in Bulkington Village Hall on the 6th, and a coffee morning in the vicarage on 20th in aid of homeless young people.

And you've got two chances for a 'Nosh and Natter' lunch in the Community Centre, on 3rd and 31st March to compensate for their not being one in February.

The AGM season is getting under way, with the Cricket Club on 18th and the Ramblers on 21st March, which is preceded by a walk around the village at 1.30pm (meet in Rusty Lane).

We hope you manage to support at least a few of the many village events and organisations mentioned in this magazine. They are what make out villages special.

Barb Jungr in Concert

Sunday 9th May, 7.30pm in Seend Community Centre

After producing a number of plays over the last two years, we decided that Seend could do with a bit of a change for their next RAW event. We are therefore extremely happy and fortunate to be able to present internationally acclaimed singer Barb Jungr in concert in the Community Centre. A not to be missed experience!

What the press says:

New York Times:- "Taking Familiar Songs by writers as diverse as Bob Dylan, Leonard Cohen and Jacques Brel, her passionate intensity, extraordinary singing, vitality and musical intelligence have made Barb Jungr the talk of New York..... Both rivetingly dramatic and completely unpretentious - a miraculous balancing act that perhaps no one else pulls off quite so compellingly"

The Independent:- Barb is listed in their "Hot List" which brings together the hottest people, things & fashion in the UK.

The show will last for approx 2 hours including an interval. Prices:- £6.50 for adults, £3.50 for children (under 16) and £5.50 for senior citizens.

Tickets available from the Community Centre, Post Office, Jan Harding (828778), Jan Crabtree (828687), Ric Ellinger (828683) and Tessa Doe (828617)

CHURCH NEWS

Mum's the Word ...

Many of you will know that in England, since at least the 17th Century, the Fourth Sunday of Lent is known as "Mothering Sunday". Historically it was a day when servants were given the day off and encouraged to return to their homes and spend time with their mothers, often taking with them a special cake, known as a Simnel Cake. Even today, children often make a special effort to return to the family home to celebrate with their mothers or, at the very least, to send a card home.

Parenthood isn't something any of us is really trained for, though is it? We fly by the "seat of our pants", don't we - and we often get it wrong, despite what we read in all those books and newspaper columns!

This year, Mothering Sunday falls on 14th March, and I wonder if it might be appropriate for us to acknowledge both the good and the bad experiences people have regarding motherhood generally. If we don't, then there's the danger that we end up not talking about "the elephant in our living room". At the very least we should face both our positive and negative experiences, bringing to mind those whose mothers were abusive, neglectful or addicted - or who enabled fathers to be like that; those who grew up in single-parent families, or who never got the chance to know a mother or father; those who have not been able, for whatever reason, to form adult relationships with their parents; those who wish they could become parents but can't; those wanting and waiting to adopt; those fortunate enough to have adoptive parents who loved them; children of extended families with step-parents; those who had an abortion long ago and now feel torn by it (yes, we really do need to acknowledge that there are people on both sides of the abortion issue who are in pain). Spare a thought too for those who never had an opportunity to become mothers, and those who have had to "mother" their own elderly, crippled, parents or parents suffering from dementia. And there are bound to be other situations I haven't touched upon. Mothering Sunday can indeed bring to the surface many raw emotions and painful memories.

In bringing all these things to mind, and in our prayers, let us remember – each one of us (regardless of whether or not we are a parent, single or married, male or female) should play our part in upholding an ideal Christian family life. Being human, we can only ever hope to partially meet that standard ... and then only with God's grace ... but be assured, that grace is there for the asking, in our prayers, if we only have the mind and will to do so.

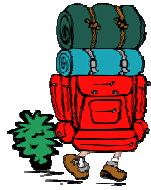

God bless,
Renée

The Churchyard

There has been an increasing number of artificial flowers, containers, toys and shrubs appearing in our churchyards over the past few weeks and months. There are very strict rules concerning church burial grounds generally (as opposed to Council operated ones), and these are set out in Churchyard Regulations, a copy of which will be available to read in each of our churches. A few people have commented on how unsightly the churchyards are becoming. In addition, maintenance of the churchyards becomes a much more difficult job, meaning more time has to be spent on grass cutting, leading to increased costs. Because it is not always possible for us to identify graves in order to speak with surviving family members, may we ask, please, that all prohibited items are removed from gravesides by the end of March? Your co-operation will be very much appreciated. In the meantime, of course we understand that there may be real pastoral issues in individual cases so please do contact the Vicar if that would help (827285).

The Vicar's OFF !!

Following my successful Trek for Treatment in the foothills of the Himalayas in November 2008 when I was sponsored to the tune of £6,380 in aid of The Leprosy Mission's Anandaban Hospital near Kathmandu, I feel in need of another challenge!

This time I will be walking the pilgrim way to Santiago de Compostela – a mere 467 miles, which I aim to complete within the space of six weeks, all being well, in April and May. All sponsorship monies raised will be shared, with 90% going to Help for Heroes and the remaining 10% to the Bishop of Salisbury's retirement appeal in aid of the Bishop Gwynne Theological Training College in Juba, Sudan. It would be fantastic if I could exceed the amount raised last time, when I walked only 50 miles (admittedly a bit up and down, but then so will this walk be too – Pyrenees here I come!). If you are willing and able to sponsor me for any amount, I would love to hear from you – or you can donate direct and on-line through JustGiving/Renee-Coulson. If you're a tax payer and would be willing to gift aid your donation, then that would be even better – increasing your giving by an extra 28p in the £.

First Steps Benefice Parent & Toddler Church Service

First Steps Service is on Tuesday 2nd March at 2.15pm. Parents, toddlers and babies welcome.

GOOD FRIDAY WORKSHOPS

Don't forget this year's workshops for children on Good Friday, 2nd April from 10 – 11.30am approximately.

There will be all the usual activities, including clay modelling, making the Easter garden, collage, Easter cards, and many more. Drinks and hot cross buns are included!

The morning ends with a very short celebration of the Children's work, which will be lead by Mrs Pam Muller.

If there is a craft or activity that YOU would like included, or you would be able to help out in any way, please contact Sue Taylor 01225 709360

There is no charge for these workshops, but a collection will be taken during the service.

The Cleeve Open Gardens will take place on Saturday 5th June 2010.

Please make a note in you diary, and look out for further information in future editions of Spotlight.

"THE POETRY of EASTER"

A quiet day led by The Rev Canon Neil Heavisides, Precentor of Gloucester Cathedral will be held on Saturday 10th April at Mill House Retreats, Westleigh, Devon from 10am - 4pm.

£20 includes lunch and refreshments. This will be a long but very enjoyable day for anyone who is interested. A small additional charge will be made for transport.

Please contact Tina Yockney on 01380 827139 for further details as soon as possible if you would like to go.

FROM ROY...

My personal devotions recently reminded me that when we wish to rob people of their dignity, we strip their clothes from them. Our disgust of torture is partly that it often involves stripping the victim naked and leaving them feeling vulnerable.

And so I am led to the foot of Christ's cross. Before the soldiers crucify Jesus, they remove his clothes. In at least one of the gospel accounts, we are told that they gamble for who will get to keep his clothes. Then in great shame Jesus is crucified and with intense suffering he dies. All human dignity is taken from him.

The events of Good Friday remind us that Jesus' whole ministry was spent among people who had lost their dignity – the poor, the exploited, the forgotten and the despised. Through his ministry, Jesus proclaimed that God was with them to restore their dignity. Finally, at the cross, stripped of all his own dignity, we see God's deep concern for our dignity meets with our human indignity in Christ. Where all sense tells us that God is absent, the crucified Christ reveals that God has not given up on us.

There are times when I despair of what we humans do to each other. There are times when I am still shocked by the indignities we inflict on each other. It is then that I return to the cross to be reminded that God never gives up on affirming our human dignity. God goes on challenging me to recognise the dignity of all his children. God forgives and renews me when I rob others of their dignity.

God bless,

SEEND CLUB AND ORGANISATION NEWS

SEEND SCOUTS AND GUIDES REUNION

Were you a member of the Seend Scouts, Wolf Cubs, Sea Rangers, Guides or Brownies before 1986?

If so, an idea was put to me at the Seend Fete last year that it would be great to have a get-together of all past members if possible.

I have booked Seend Community Centre for Saturday, 26th June, from 7.30-10.30pm. Could you please make the date known to any members of your family and to anyone living away whom you are still in contact with.

I do hope we get a good response on an evening of memories and achievements of the Scout and Guide movement of Seend in past years. Please bring along any photos or other memorabilia of interest.

WEA Basic Technology Group

Is there anyone out there who is not confident about using a mobile phone in an emergency? Or who would like to send a text to a grandchild or a TV station, but who doesn't like to bother their friends or family to show them how (again!).

The WEA is encouraging the formation of small self-help groups, and I would like to start one to tackle some of the baffling modern technological innovations, starting with the easiest and perhaps working our way up to the dizzy heights of an i-pod, depending on what people would like to master.

There would be no 'experts' as such. I anticipate that to begin with, if we get stuck, we might look at an instruction book together and if that is total gobbledegook we might call on some kindly person who does know what to do to help us solve the problem. If you are at all interested, please ring me, Pam Church, on 01380 828597.

The WEA AGM is on 19th April in Seend Community Centre. All welcome to talk about future courses and events.

SEEND AND DISTRICT GARDENING CLUB

Having cancelled Alison Peterson in January due to the icy conditions in Rusty Lane we were lucky enough to re-book her for 9th February as the programmed speaker cancelled us for the second time. Her talk was entitled Organic Pest Control, which could have been rather dry but turned out to be very interesting and informative.

Alison was an organised and clear speaker with a strong sense of humour, who instantly appealed to our members and has been booked for next season already! She told us that controlling pests was often down to common sense in the garden starting with knowing friends from foes. Only 2% of the insects in our gardens are pests, the rest are either harmless or beneficial. To ward off the 2% ensure that your soil is fertile, that you grow resistant varieties of plants, grow plants that attract pest predators and provide habitats for them, practise crop rotation if growing veg, grow plants in the right places so they are not stressed and use good hygiene, cleaning pots in soapy water and cleaning and oiling tools each time you use them. I'm afraid I often don't even put mine away. Then you protect your plants by using barriers of dried and crushed egg shells, bran, coffee grounds, netting, fleece or cloches. As you go round your garden, rub aphids off leaves with your fingers, pick off caterpillars and slugs and dispose of them. I think her phrase was rub, pick and crush. Use beer traps (yoghourt pots) for slugs and snails. The resulting goo can be put on the compost heap. Rats apparently hate the smell of peppermint so stew mint leaves, leave for a couple of days, strain and water their runs and favourite places. Or scatter crushed Polo mints instead. You can make a garlic spray by putting 4 or 5 cloves in water, leave for a couple of weeks and then spray plants with the liquid. Chillies might work the same way. So with your garden smelling of peppermint, garlic and chillies you will probably get rid of your neighbours as well. The most interesting fact of the evening was that pests like aphids have an accelerated breeding cycle, giving birth to pregnant young so they recover quickly from chemical insecticides.

In the notices David told us that he has now finalised arrangements for a trip to Cranborne on Thursday 15th July. A list will be out soon.

If Chelsea tickets are wanted please get in touch with Sue Johns who also won the competition for a photo of a single flower.

Next month Dawn Collins is returning to talk on 'The Path to Paradise. A journey through the Stourhead landscape.' This will be followed in May by a guided walk with Dawn round the garden. The competition will be the Spring Bulb Show. If you have lost your schedule Joyce has some still or I can mail one to you.

Joyce has the pair of fur-lined gloves left behind at the last meeting.

Sue.

SEEND AND DISTRICT RAMBLERS

On 24th January, 24 walkers assembled at the top of Caen Hill Locks to commence a 7½ mile circular walk along towpath and tracks via Lower Foxhangers, Poulshot and through to Devizes. It was a bright day, very muddy underfoot after the recent snow, but nevertheless a most bracing and wonderful walk led by Sandy and Tim James. Many thanks to them both.

On Saturday 30th January, an enjoyable evening of skittles took place at Corsham Football Club, organized by Reg and Wendy. Four teams played against each other. A lot of fun was had; our thanks to both Wendy and Reg for all their efforts organizing a most successful evening.

Sunday 21st March – AGM at 3pm in the Irene Usher Memorial Pavilion, preceded by a walk organized by Ron Apter – most likely covering the recently designated ‘Ron Westacott Way’. Those members wishing to do this walk should assemble in Rusty Lane to commence at 1.30pm.

The meeting afterwards will commence with tea and cake and should last no longer than an hour. Walkers are reminded that the yearly subscriptions will be due on this date.

April’s walk will be on Sunday 18th. Meet in Rusty Lane for a 9.30am departure.

SEEND WI

Our February meeting, attended by over 30 women and was a very thought provoking and informative interactive discussion led by Gaynor Vale from Wiltshire Community Services exploring how social services can be accessed and what is available. It was a great opportunity for members to discuss with the speakers and each other, some difficult situations and to understand what services can be provided. Many thanks to our own Carolyn Bowen for arranging this talk.

Our next meeting on 10 March will be a fun social with a Beetle Drive (remember those) – well it’s a great way for people to get to meet each other and have some laughs and chatter along the way, so please do come along and join us. Why not bring a glass and your favourite tipple!

Our April meeting on Wednesday 14 April will be our AGM – obviously there will be the regular business to transact, but we have also invited a speaker, to make it a really interesting evening. Jean Parsons will be joining us to talk about ‘A Peculiar Occupation’ – life in Jersey under the German Occupation during World War II. One not to be missed!

You may also be delighted to know that Seend favourite Freddie Giles has been able to reschedule his talk for our May meeting .

Please feel free to come along and join us – our meetings take place on the second Wednesday of each month at 7.30pm in the Irene Usher Memorial Pavilion (unless otherwise specified!).

Lots of things coming up - Dugout supper, folk night, charity disco, National Trust lecture - see events section at the beginning of this magazine for details.

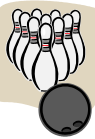

Nosh & Natter

This monthly lunch club is getting more and more popular, so book early by ringing John and Lilian Smallshaw. Coming dates are 3rd and 31st March and 28th April, 12 for 12.30.

Singles Skittles competition

Numbers were down this year on the last few years which was slightly disappointing but, after a slow start, it turned into an enjoyable night for all. The Ladies' final between Joan Elliott and Molly Maslen went right down to the wire. Molly couldn't get enough pins on the last leg leaving Joan to claim the top prize. The Men's final was between Geoff Ham and myself. Geoff required a spare on his last leg but was unable to get it. The highlight of the night was probably BJ's presentation at the end. For the Ladies, he presented the bottle of wine (meant for the winner) to the runner-up. Having learned his lesson, for the Men, he made sure he left the bottle alone and presented the winner's envelope to the runner-up instead!

In summary:

Ladies' Winner: Joan Elliott

Ladies' Runner-up: Molly Maslen

Men's Winner: Russ Collins

Men's Runner-up: Geoff Ham

Letter received from Wiltshire Council concerning a review undertaken of existing speed limits on A & B roads. Roads affected in the Seend area are:

A361 from the Strand to C226 junction – meets criteria for 50 mph

A365 from the 40 mph limit in Sells Green to Seend Fork – meets criteria for 50 mph

PC Emily Thomas has contacted the Transportation Planning Team and Highways Dept following the recent accident at the A361 crossroads by the Bell Inn, to assess the situation and check out the road signage.

Letter from Wiltshire Council concerning grit bins located within parishes, enclosing a map, asking that the bins be surveyed and a note made of their condition, and whether further bins are needed. This has now been done, advising that two bins shown on the map are missing, and requesting two further bins at the entrance to The Lye and at the top of Inmarsh, near the entrance to Turners Farm.

PC Emily Thomas had sent a Farm Bulletin. There is concern about Land Rover Defender thefts, in October 2009 eight were taken in one month. There have been other thefts of 4 x 4 vehicles as well. There have been 20 incidents of hare coursing. Theft from farms of Cotswold stone and bales of hay, and the Police are expecting thefts of fuel and metal to rise.

Letter received from Seend PCC concerning Seend War Memorial. There has been some talk about the possible re-siting of the memorial that is located at the entrance to the Churchyard, to a more prominent position within the village. This has been discussed by the Royal British Legion, the Community Centre and the Lye Field Committee, who agree that re-location would be worthwhile. A suggested site is the south edge of the Lye Field. The letter asks that the Parish Council take this matter forward. The PCC are perfectly happy for the War Memorial to remain in the Churchyard should the village wish it to. The PC discussed possible sites, including the entrance to Dial Close and top of Love Lane. It was agreed that this would be placed on the agenda for discussion at the Annual Parish Meeting, so that parishioners could attend and voice their views.

The proposed Marina at Foxhangers will have an impact on Seend, including canal use and parking. Wiltshire Council to be advised that Seend PC wish to comment on the application.

It was agreed that contact details for the Parish Clerk would be displayed on all notice boards.

Mrs Rosemary Fisher, Clerk

WILTSHIRE COUNCILLOR NEWS FROM JONATHON SEED

The snow drops are up as I write this article and soon the daffodils will herald the arrival of spring. How time flies when there is so much going on in and around Summerham and Seend.

The Melksham Area Board goes from strength to strength. I really enjoy Chairing and working with the Councillors and the officers who support the Board. I see this as a cross party function and the Councillors of different political persuasions make a real effort to put party politics aside in the interests of the people of the Melksham Area. We are very lucky to have an outstanding area manager in Abbi Gutierrez (Tel 01225 718443) and also a very good Democratic Services officer in Kevin Fielding. Abbi is the Melksham Area's very own facilitator in County Hall. She deals with all the issues and grant applications as well as arranging meetings etc. It is of huge benefit to the community having an Area Manager and gives us all someone to turn to in order to contact the right person on local issues which need attention in County Hall. Last month the Area Board met in Broughton Gifford Village Hall where we heard a very interesting presentation on the new Melksham Canal link from Semington into Melksham and I also gave a Flood Alleviation presentation in my role as Chairman of the Operational Flood Working Group. Board meetings will move around the Area and the next meeting is in Melksham at the Rachel Fowler Centre on Wednesday 24th March at 6.30. The meeting after that will be in Seend Community Centre on Wednesday 26th May. Members of the public are welcome at Area Board meetings so do come along and see what goes on.

In Seend I have recently had a very positive meeting with Mr Sherman from Spiderweb Paddock and I hope that this will help to resolve difficulties. I have also been helping with the grant for play area refurbishment at the Lye Field. In Bulkington we recently had a detailed and highly productive meeting in Keevil Village Hall where the Highways and Drainage Engineers outlined the results of their flood and gully surveys to the Parish Flood Warden and Chairs of Parish Councils. The engineers then gave very welcome details of all the work that they will be doing to make the flow of water work in both Keevil and Bulkington.

If you need to contact me please phone 01380 850696 or e-mail jonathon.seed@wiltshire.gov.uk.
