Spotlight Online Colour Supplement

Looking back at some August and September 2023 events

Seend Fete
The weather could have been better, but that didn't stop the crowds turning up and having a good time.

The Flower Show had a record number of entries

The Brewery Inn's Sausage and Cider Day was popular!

Some members of the Footpath clearing working party

Some Keevil School pupils enjoying the great outdoors

Seend WI members meet in the churchyard to inspect the roses planted in memory of the late Queen and Prince Philip

The residents of New Buildings created a sunflower avenue for your delectation and delight

Seend Summer Saturday Breakfasts broke a few records this year – but coordinator Jen felt obliged to turn up in disguise as a 'secret shopper' for quality control purposes. Do you think anyone recognised her?

Bopping to the Pop Pickers at the Royal British Legion event
