

May 2026

Spotlight online colour supplement

Both the Pavilion and the Community Centre have splashed out on refurbishing their kitchens in the last few months. Here are the results: a commercial style kitchen for the large-scale catering sometimes undertaken at the Community Centre, and a slightly more domestic style for the smaller Pavilion. Between them the two venues can cater for just about any event!

More refurbishment: Seend School's beautiful new library!

Late spring!

Feedback on this and previous editions welcome – as well as photos of village events for inclusion in future editions – to spotlight@send.org.uk